Past performance is no guarantee of future results. ¹Distributions from net investment income, if any, are declared and paid quarterly. Distributions, if any, of net short-term capital gain and net capital gain (the excess of net long-term capital gain over the short-term capital loss) realized by the Fund, after deducting any available capital loss carryovers are declared and paid to shareholders at least annually. Income distributions and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with U.S. federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. These differences include the treatment of non-taxable distributions, losses deferred due to wash sales and excise tax regulations. Permanent book and tax basis differences relating to shareholder distributions will result in reclassifications within the components of net assets. There can be no assurance that the Fund will continue to pay the same or any Distributions. Distributions can only be approved by the Fund's Board of Trustees. ²The Fund commenced operations on November 13, 2013. ³Numerical data compiled by Bank of New York Mellon, Administrator to the Fund, is based on information believed to be correct, subject to revision and adjustment. All numbers are rounded to the 100th decimal place. ⁴Net Asset Value at beginning of period reflects a deduction of $1.51 per share of sales load and offering expenses from the initial public offering price of $25 per share. ⁵Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index ("Bloomberg Aggregate") (including interest income) covers the U.S. dollar-denominated, investment-grade, fixed-rate, taxable bond market of SEC-registered securities. The index includes bonds from the Treasury, government agency, corporate, plus mortgage- and asset-backed sectors. ⁶Bloomberg U.S. Corporate High Yield 2% Issuer Capped Index ("Bloomberg High Yield") is an index that measures the performance of high yield, non-investment grade corporate bonds, with a maximum allocation of 2% to any one issuer. ⁷Market Price as of 8/8/2024.
